POLICY ANALYST

THE OPPORTUNITY

MONTHLY SALARY

$5,740.96 – $8,304.00

JOB DESCRIPTION

As a TIDC policy analyst, you are part of a team that improves Texas criminal public defense by monitoring county compliance with the Fair Defense Act. Monitoring includes court observation, interviews, court record review, investigation, and report writing. When you find problems with a public defense system, you recommend changes and work with judges, lawyers, court personnel, and county officials to create better public defense systems that comply with the Fair Defense Act.

You will also work to improve the family protection representation system in Texas, which is the legal representation of children and parents involved in the child protection system.

In addition to these core duties, policy analysts will work on other TIDC projects related to the Improvement Team, or data collection and analysis with the Research Director, including presenting to criminal justice or family representation stakeholders, drafting publications, planning public defender offices, organizing stakeholder groups, data visualization, and more.

Remote or hybrid work within Texas may be possible.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS
